AGENDA	ACTIONS
Programs/Services: Future Outlook	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Marketing of MCCS Programs are not up to par. ✓ NPSP is not proactive. There should be referral cooperation; liaison between the clinic here and NPSP. The spouses that are pregnant usually here it from the FRO or other spouses about the program. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Playgroups around the Corps is spearheaded by NPSP because the individuals are more organized and qualified to ensure playgroups are conducive to educating the parents as well as observing/teaching the children that attend the playgroups. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Suggestions: marketing flyer, referral flyer
Volunteer Appreciation Events	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ LINKS for Spouses is scheduled for 16 April; Location: TBD. ✓ MCLC's Volunteer Appreciation scheduled for 26 April. Be on the lookout for the invite.
Around the table	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ MCCS has to do better with their support programs and services. More programs does not equal better programs. More QUALITY programs is better than the quantity of programs being pushed out. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Suggestion: Spouse-to-Spouse Sponsorship. Assistants/Advisors want to establish this program to make the transition to Albany easier. The target spouses will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ No Kids ○ Currently Pregnant; 1st child ○ Currently Pregnant; has children ○ Has children (no school age) ○ Has children (school age) ○ Has Adult Kids
