Southwest Georgia SHRM Albany Chapter is an affiliate of the Society for Human Resource Management. Whether you are new to the HR field or have many years of experience, we bring Human Resource professionals together in Southwest Georgia to promote professional growth and development and networking opportunities among our diverse membership. Our members represent diverse industries, service institutions, and governmental agencies. Other benefits of membership in SHRM include:

- Discussing your HR concerns with other professionals
- Networking with others, exchanging ideas
- Monthly meetings on numerous HR topics such as workers comp, legal, etc.
- Annual workshops with CEU credit
- Interactive website with pertinent information

About the Speaker

Tracy St. Amant, Assistant Vice President of Human Resources at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital, has worked in a Human Resources leadership role for the last 15 years. Focusing on employee relations and talent acquisition, Tracy has spent the last seven years building a talented healthcare workforce. Tracy has a Bachelor's of Science from Valdosta State University, a Master of Public Administration from Kennesaw State University and has earned her Senior Professional in Human Resources, SPHR. She is an active member of the Southwest Georgia Chapter of SHRM where she serves as the chapter's president and teaches the SPHR/PHR Certification Course through Darton State College.
