

Civilian-Marines from Marine Depot Maintenance Command's (MDMC) Advanced Manufacturing Center of Excellence (AM COE) display 3D printed parts for use in the FIM-92 Stinger Missile System, while at Marine Corps Logistics Base Albany, Ga., April 20. MDMC manufactured the replacement parts in support of the Presidential Drawdown of security assistance, producing the parts in less than 24 hours.

